KCTV Ch. 5 St. Louis - Documents seem to contradict current position on West Lake Landfill - 2/7/14 -

NewsChannel 5 has obtained hundreds of documents regarding the health risks at the West Lake Landfill, dating back to the mid-1980s. Based on these 30-year-old documents, it appears public officials today are contradicting what was originally said. <http://www.ksdk.com/story/news/local/5-on-your-side/2014/02/06/documents-contradict-west-lake-landfill-position/5268041/>

Lake Expo (Mo.) - Co-Mo approves increase, warns of EPA threat - 2/6/14 - "We're happy to be able to keep the increase as low as we did," Friend said. "There's a lot of upward pressure on rates. We're facing a tremendous threat from the Environmental Protection Agency that would take away our coal plants, which provide 80 percent of our members' power." http://lakeexpo.com/news/lake_news/article_17f41f9a-8f7f-11e3-9cb4-001a4bcf887a.html

Reuters - Coal technology not ready for wider adoption, EPA panel told - 2/6/14 - Proposed pollution standards for new U.S. power plants, a central part of the Obama administration's climate change plan, should not rely on a soon-to-be completed project in Mississippi as an example of how to capture emissions from coal-fired power plants, the plant's owner said on Thursday. <http://www.reuters.com/article/2014/02/06/epa-coal-idUSL2N0LB1H420140206>

Fox News - House GOP bill aims to end 'secret science' in EPA rulemaking - 2/7/14 - Republican lawmakers in the House are pushing legislation that would prohibit the Environmental Protection Agency from proposing new regulations based on science that is not transparent or not reproducible. <http://www.foxnews.com/politics/2014/02/07/house-gop-bill-aims-to-end-secret-science-in-epa-rulemaking/>

Des Moines Register - What Others Are Saying: Obama needs pragmatism on new pipeline - 2/6/14 - The Obama administration's dilemma about whether to approve building the Keystone XL oil pipeline is coming down to a simple choice: Does the president embrace pragmatism or symbolism? <http://www.desmoinesregister.com/article/20140207/OPINION01/302070040/1035/>
